If you are successful in being offered a plot, you must attend the allotment at an agreed time and day to take possession of the plot, induction and acceptance of Eglinton Growers Allotment Association's rules and regulations in accordance with the Constitution as detailed in our welcome pack. You will be required at this time to make payment in full for the annual licence rent, plus a refundable deposit and the one off membership fee (should you want a copy of our ground lease there will be a surcharge of £5.00 to cover printing costs).

Refundable deposits are held until the cessation of your licence and will be refunded on the provision that the licence holder of the licenced plot returns the said plot/s in good order, all and any paths are clear of weeds, and any personal items have been removed.
 Please give any other information in support of your application.
